

OFFICIAL 2020 NOMINATION FORM for the National Housing Hall of Fame and Exemplary Service to Home Building

This nomination form applies to NAHB's two highest honors: Membership in the National Housing Hall of Fame and the Exemplary Service in Home Building award.

The National Housing Center Board of Governors will review all nominations and determine who receives which of these honors based on the information that is submitted.

National Housing Hall of Fame To recognize and honor those individuals whose contributions to the housing industry have made a lasting and significant impact. Their contribution(s) should be of national or global importance and of enduring value by their role in improving housing affordability, availability and choice for all people in the United States of America.	Exemplary Service in Home Building To recognize individuals for outstanding and commendable accomplishments in service to the housing industry.
