

1201 15th Street NW
Washington, DC 20005

T 800 368 5242
F 202 266 8400

www.nahb.org

Jerry Konter
2021 First Vice Chairman
National Association of Home Builders

Jerry Konter, a Georgia-based builder with over 40 years of experience in residential construction, is NAHB's 2021 First Vice Chairman of the Board.

Konter is the founder and president of Konter Quality Homes, which he established in 1977 in his home town of Savannah, Ga. The company builds a broad range of designs in production home communities and is also a custom builder. Over the years, it has constructed more than 2,000 single-family homes and 500 multifamily units in the Savannah area.

Throughout his career, Konter has been active in NAHB's leadership at the local, state and national levels. As a Senior Life Delegate, he has served as a leader of the Association for more than 20 years.

Konter has also chaired several NAHB committees including: Land Development, State and Local Government Affairs, Meetings and Convention, and Federal Government Affairs. He has also served on the Resolutions and Budget and Finance committees. Konter was the 2013 State Representative for Georgia and the National Area 4 Chairman in 2010/2011 and 2016/2017. He has been a BUILD-PAC Trustee for over 15 years.

At the local level, Konter was president of the Home Builders Association of Greater Savannah in 1991 and was named the association's Builder of the Year in 1993 and 2001. He received its President's Award in 1994 and was inducted into the Home Builders Association of Greater Savannah's Hall of Fame in 2004. Konter was president of the Home Builders Association of Georgia in 1998 and was inducted into the Home Builders Association of Georgia Hall of Fame in 2009. He received the association's President's Award in 2014.

A graduate of the University of Georgia, Konter is also active in his community. He was a member of the Jaycees and served on the Board of Directors of the Savannah Humane Society. He also served as president of the Jewish Educational Alliance, on the Board of Directors of the Savannah Jewish Federation, and as a trustee of the Savannah Jewish Foundation. Konter was also a member of the Savannah Chatham Metropolitan Planning Commission.

Konter and his wife, Marcy, have two grown children and two grandchildren.

NAHB's senior officers serve on a multi-year leadership ladder. Konter will become Chairman of NAHB's Board of Directors in 2022.