

Alicia Huey

2024 IMMEDIATE PAST CHAIRMAN
NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF HOME BUILDERS

Alicia Huey, a Birmingham, Ala.-based custom home builder and developer with more than 30 years of experience in the home building industry, is NAHB's 2024 Immediate Past Chairman.

Huey is president of AGH Homes, Inc., a custom home building company she founded in 2000. AGH Homes specializes in high-end custom homes for buyers on individual lots, and the company also builds homes in Hoover, Ala., and in several golf course communities in Vestavia, Ala.

Huey was chairman of NAHB's Board of Directors in 2023.

AWARDS

- Home Builders Association of Alabama Builder of the Year (2014)
- Greater Birmingham Association of Home Builders Builder of the Year (2012)
- Professional Women in Building Woman of the Year (2008)
- Greater Birmingham Association of Home Builders Hall of Fame (2008)

Huey lives in Birmingham with her husband, Don, who is also active in their local home builders association through his company, Magic City Title Insurance.

NAHB LEADERSHIP EXPERIENCE

Throughout her career, Huey has been active in the NAHB leadership structure at the local, state and national levels. She has served on the NAHB Board of Directors for more than 15 years.

PREVIOUS POSITIONS

- BUILD-PAC Chairman
- Membership Committee Chairman
- Professional Women in Building Council Chairman
- Executive Board member
- State & Local Government Affairs Committee member
- Association Communications Committee member
- Greater Birmingham Association of Home Builders President

Huey also is active in her community. She volunteered with Habitat for Humanity for a decade, was honored as the organization's 2011 Volunteer of the Year and served as chair of the Habitat for Humanity of Greater Birmingham from 2012-2014.