THE PAC FAQ

What is BUILD-PAC?

BUILD-PAC, or Builders United in Legislative Decisions Political Action Committee, is the political arm of the National Association of Home Builders (NAHB). It helps elect pro-housing, pro-business candidates to federal office.

Which party does BUILD-PAC support, Republicans or Democrats?

BUILD-PAC is bipartisan. It supports pro-housing, pro-business candidates on both sides of the aisle regardless of their party affiliation.

Who decides which candidates receive BUILD-PAC support?

Contributors like you! More than 100 NAHB members serve on the BUILD-PAC Board of Trustees, which decides which candidates receive support.

Who can contribute to BUILD-PAC?

Only NAHB members may be solicited to contribute to BUILD-PAC.

Does BUILD-PAC accept corporate contributions?

BUILD-PAC can accept only personal funds. It is illegal for a political action committee to contribute corporate donations to congressional candidates.

How can we get more members to participate?

Participation is critical. That's why BUILD-PAC created a new Fair Share level. With a contribution of just $25, this giving level will enable far more members to join the fight for housing.

How can I learn more about BUILD-PAC?

Please telephone the BUILD-PAC staff at 800-368-5242, ext. 8470 or send an email to BUILD-PAC@nahb.org. Additional information is also available at NAHB.org/BUILD-PAC.

You should join the fight for housing because you ...

CARE about the home building industry, the ongoing recovery and the future of housing.

APPRECIATE the opportunity to educate members of Congress about issues affecting your business and its bottom line.

WANT to ensure that local concerns receive attention at the national level.

NEED a steady, reliable stream of credit to produce new housing.

VIEW remodeling as a key component of the nation's economy.

BELIEVE housing finance, tax and immigration reform should be at the top of Congress' agenda.

UNDERSTAND the value of the mortgage interest deduction and the need to protect it.

SUPPORT multifamily housing and believe it deserves attention in Washington.

VALUE the ideal of decent, affordable housing and housing choice for all Americans.

KNOW a unified community is more effective in achieving results than an individual.

BUILD-PAC supports all of these goals and more.

Contribute today.

Make sure lawmakers know your concerns and hear your voice.

Your contribution strengthens BUILD-PAC's efforts in Washington!

BUILD-PAC and NAHB's advocacy team work on your behalf to:

- Open doors in Washington and on Capitol Hill to ensure that housing is a national priority.
- Eliminate burdensome regulations.
- Preserve the mortgage interest deduction, the property tax deduction and other critical tax measures.
- Promote comprehensive reform of the nation's housing finance system.
- Ensure that reasonably priced credit is readily available for new home construction and consumer mortgages.
